

7102

HexArmor®

The Rig Lizard® Fluid 7102 delivers high-performance protection. With a full double dip for fluid and water resistance over an HPPE and fiberglass shell, this Rig Lizard Series glove is equipped for some of the toughest jobs on site. In addition to a sandy nitrile palm dip for superior grip and abrasion resistance, the 7102 also features our highly flexible IR-X® Impact Exoskeleton™, so workers hands are protected from smash and pinch injuries.
