

NEW SL1600 + SL900 + SL200

Professional Rechargeable Led Searchlights With Adjustable Handle + Stand

An updated version of NightSearcher's SL360, the SL900 rechargeable LED searchlight has an adjustable handle that can be operated in three positions, including a comfortable pistol grip. The Cree LED provides a massive 900 lumen light output and 500m beam perfect for professional applications. The SL900 has a robust construction that's impact proof, and the deep-dish reflector enables maximum distance-to-lumen ratio for a bright spot beam.
